I can connect from mysql client, but can't connect to the database from php. when i type in php throws Error 500 and not found. I have also tried to restart httpd and mysql but not working. MySQL Ver 13.14.0-cll A: Just a guess, but did you change the MySQL Port to 3306 and changed the Bind Address to localhost? You can find more information on port numbers here: Navigation Testimonials "The title of a successful life depends upon its sense of purpose. The sense of purpose alone is the fulfillment of our true destiny." - Joseph Campbell "The hope of life is rooted in the belief that a life may have a higher purpose, may be fundamentally meaningful and of worth, even though it may involve struggle, hardship and pain." - The Dalai Lama "We want what we have not yet experienced. We long for what we do not yet possess. This is the process of growth, this is the practice of right view, this is the practice of moral discipline. We ought to pursue such things as are most difficult for the mind to grasp, things that are not immediately apparent. It is for the wise to see that wrong-view is the deepest of all. Right action is the choice that brings about a happy result, 3da54e8ca3
