TAMPA — Tampa Bay Rays second baseman Kevin Kiermaier has a chance to become the first 22-year-old to be named American League MVP. Kiermaier on Thursday was named an AL All-Star reserve, beating out Angels outfielder Mike Trout, who was the early favorite. Trout will be the only player under 25 on an AL All-Star roster since Toronto's Vernon Wells was a member of the 2011 AL team. "It feels great to get this honor," Kiermaier said. "It's the best way to end the season, definitely." The announcement comes as the Rays approach the end of the regular season with a 74-44 record. The team holds the best record in baseball and is in position to secure the AL's wild card.

Kiermaier, who signed with the Rays last August as a free agent, has been one of the best offensive players in baseball this season, winning the AL's top slugger and RBI honors. He has made the AL All-Star team four times in his career. Kiermaier leads the AL with a .303 batting average, winning the batting title over Trout, who has a .310 average. But Kiermaier has hit safely in 72 of 74 games and has scored 72 runs. "I've been really fortunate and blessed to have an opportunity to play all the way through April and June and in September. That's the best part about baseball," he said. "I've got to really Design Review Tool.As Democratic lawmakers defend their position that they should, at minimum, have the ability to see Mueller's final report and underlying evidence regarding his investigation, Rep.

Adam Schiff, the chairman of the House Intelligence Committee, on Friday explained that the committee would seek to interview

Mr. Mueller himself if he is available. “If he is willing to do it, he can come before our committee and answer questions,” Mr. Schiff, a California Democrat, told reporters. “If not, he will serve as a source — just as the special counsel was our source.” Mr. Mueller is currently overseeing a federal investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 election, including whether Mr. Trump obstructed justice and whether his campaign colluded with Moscow. But Democrats are increasingly frustrated by the lack of access to that report and evidence, which are typically covered by attorney-client privilege. Mr. Schiff said he believes Mr. Mueller wants to be interviewed, even if he does not want to speak publicly. “He’s said over and over again that he wants to be interviewed. I think he’s willing to do it, and certainly if there's someone in the House or Senate Judiciary Committee who wants to interview him, we'll give him the opportunity to do that," Mr. Schiff said. House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, in an interview with CNN last month, called for the Justice Department to hand over the full Mueller report and underlying evidence. Mr. Trump, meanwhile, has repeatedly called on the Justice Department to release the report, suggesting it's being held back for political reasons. The Justice Department, however, said the report is being released as fast as it can, but could not speed up the process if they needed to secure some information that was protected by attorney-client privilege. ❖
